

Deutsch festival

October 1st (Sat) 10:30 ~ 14:30

Yamanashi International Center (2-2-3 Iida, Kofu City)

Free Admission

The Prussian East Asian expedition team reached Edo, which is now Tokyo, in 1860 and signed a friendship treaty and a treaty of commerce and navigation with Japan on January 1st 1861.

This treaty is the cornerstone of the longtime friendship between the two nations.

The International Association is hoping to introduce you to the various aspects of German culture in commemoration of the 150 years of Japan-Germany relations

Programme

◆ Speech (10:30 ~ 12:00) [application required]

Speech by German Embassy Counselor Mr. Pit Heltmann, about the history of Japan-German relations, Germany's past, and present, and its scenic charms.

◆ German Gourmet (charged) (12:00 ~ 13:00)

Enjoy German food and authentic German bread.

◆ Concert (scheduled for 13:00 ~ 14:00)

Enjoy classical music performances and traditional German tunes.

◆ Kinder Deutsch (10:30 ~ 12:00)

[application required]

Come discover German culture through games and activities

◆ Quiz Corner (12:00 ~ 14:30)

Discover German culture through a quiz. Prizes are offered.

◆ Germany UNESCO picture Panel (all day long)

Introduction of German culture and tourism spots through Germany's World Heritage sites.

Planning/Application, Information : Yamanashi International Association

(Manager of the Yamanashi International Centre)

Tel: 055-228-5419 Fax: 055-228-5473

www.yia.or.jp yiaevent@gmail.com

Cooperation: Japan-Germany Cultural Ambassador Programme, Wald

Assistance: Yamanashi Suzuki Josei Jigyo Zaidan

Support: NHK Kofu, Yamanashi Sannichi Newspaper-Yamanashi Broadcasting, TV Yamanashi, Asahi Newspaper Kofu Branch, Nihon Network Services, FM Fuji, FM Kofu, Nihon Keizai Shinbun Kofu Branch, Sankei Shinbun Kofu Branch, Jiji Press Kofu Branch, TV Asahi Kofu Branch (in request)

